

11. Level grille guard & tighten all nuts and bolts.

You may need to loosen mounting bracket bolts to help with levelling.

WARNING

Special care should be exercised in the handling and installation of Roughneck products, We encourage you to use multiple people or a mechanical device to help transport / install our products.

Do not assume a position directly under the product during installation.

Periodically check / tighten all nuts and bolts.